

PRESS RELEASE

New order

Klüh is the new catering partner of the Düsseldorf Chamber of Skilled Crafts

Düsseldorf, 06.12.2022 – Starting immediately, the catering division of the multi-service provider Klüh is taking over the catering services at the Düsseldorf Chamber of Skilled Crafts (HWK). The new contract is set to run for two years and includes an option to extend twice for a further 12 months each. “Klüh convinced us with a contemporary package that takes our needs and wishes into account”, says Knut Koch, head of the department Facility Management and Internal Services at HWK.

Under the contract, Klüh Catering will be catering for the employees of the HWK as well as the external participants of the day school and evening courses throughout the day. This includes breakfast, lunch and dinner, snacks and hospitality at conferences and special events.

Varying cuisine with local classics, international specialities and vegetarian and vegan dishes adds a breath of fresh air to the company restaurant, with all dishes also available sustainably packed as a takeaway. Guests can find nutritional values, information on allergens and additives, special offers, culinary promotions and promotional dishes in the Klüh Catering app.

The HWK Düsseldorf is one of 53 chambers of skilled crafts in Germany. With around 59,000 member organisations, it is one of the largest self-governing institutions in the economy and represents the interests of the entire skilled crafts sector on the Rhine, Ruhr and Wupper: companies, employees and trainees. Its service area corresponds to the administrative district of Düsseldorf.
